The system found four quiet forms of financial damage.

01

Skill delay

₹52,106 / month

The largest cost is not spending. It is postponed capability.

02

Avoidance tax

₹12,122 / month

Unfinished work is charging interest against future confidence.

03

Attention bleed

₹10,255 / month

Your attention is leaving before your ambition can compound.

04

Impulse residue

₹9,068 / month

Small emotional purchases are becoming a silent identity tax.
